Principal's Message

Mr. Piecara

To The Class of 2002,

As I consider the previous four school years and reflect upon the accomplishments of the class of 2002 two key words come to mind: commitment and success. I believe that each member of the Class of 2002 has learned the value of personal commitment, dedicating many long hours to the accomplishment of an individual goal established many years ago, i.e. graduation from Marple Newtown Senior High School. Success, the positive completion of a personal goal or objective, is the feeling of accomplishment that you experience as you accept your diploma from high school and begin to accept the many new challenges your future has in store for you. With graduation rapidly approaching, I believe you have truly learned the value of commitment and success. In addition I am confident that you understand the positive relationship of one on the other.

Graduation, however, is not an end unto itself. Rather it is the beginning of another new and exciting journey. Graduation is a time when we conclude one segment of our lives and begin to accept new challenges. The purpose of a high school education is to prepare you to become a life long learner therby promoting the successful accomplishment of future goals. Remember, however, earning a high school diploma is only one of many goals you have in your journey through life. Much remains to be accomplished.

As you begin to tackle the many challenges ahead of you remember the words of Harry S. Truman, "I studied the lives of great men and women, and I found that the men and women who got to the top were those who did the jobs they had in hand, with everything they had of energy and enthusiasm and hard work." You have the foundation necessary to be successful in life. Mix in some hard work, commitment and dedication and you will accomplish the many goals you have set for yourself.

I wish you continued success, good health and the best that life has to offer.

Sincerely,

Stanley Piecara - Principal

ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Mrs. Puleo, the Marple Newtown Orchestra includes a strong body of musicians. The students practiced Tuesday and Wednesday mornings before school and during instrumental lessons. The musicians performed for the community in Winter and Spring Concerts during the year.

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a little better; whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is the meaning of success." - Ralph Waldo Emerson

To the Class of 2002:

Last Words

ild, I always loved thumbing through the eclectic pages of a yearbook. Each page was an k of different ideas and collections that never ceased to be dull. Little did I know how dedication and hard work it takes in creating such a masterpiece. Of all the many clubs rganizations that I've ever joined, nothing has taken up so much time and energy; but in d, everything has been so worthwhile. This book never would have been created without dication of a few individuals. First and foremost, to my Co-Editor- Jen: This book was not collection of memories, but it also forged a friendship between us. I will always remem- e college talks, Wawa hoagies, our "relaxing" winter break, and working on pages until the morning. Thank you also to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon for letting us use your house and tting up with our mess. Senior Editors- Ainstein: Thank you for your photo developing awesome colleges, and your extreme dedication. You were always there for us when we d you the most! Bridget: Thank you for your hard work on the baby pictures. Elana: you for being there anytime I needed you. Senior staff members- Ross, Morty, Katie, Julia, and Tony: The littlest things made huge differences. Sports Editors- Teela, Steph, indsay: Thanks for making all the arrangements and for your thoughtfulness. Arts edi- Grace and Cindy: Friends 4ever, I'll never forget all of our "working on yearbook" excuses. classmen editors: Stags, Amanda, Eunice, Kaitlin, D.J., and Cynthia. You guys have a way to go next year, but in the end, everything will work out. Good Luck! Lastly, to our wonderful mentors- Mr. Williams: I will always treasure the guidance and support that e given me throughout these past four years. Mr. O'Brien: Thanks for teaching us every- we've needed to know and putting up with all of our last minute questions and deadlines. y, last but certainly not least, Bob: It was wonderful getting to know you. Your magic tricks riendship brightened up my days! To all the kids and faculty: I hope you will treasure this forever. I'm so lucky to have been able to "capture" a part of Marple's history.

Love always,

Sha Ling

eight months of continuous work on this yearbook, I am relieved to be writing losing remarks. Despite the hardships, I admit that being Co-Editor of the year- has taught me a great deal about deadlines and following directions. I have also ed to cherish and value help from others, namely the awesome editors of the ook staff. Thank you to the Senior Editors: Ainie for your creative mazes and pic- developing, Bridget for your incredible baby-picture organizations, Elana for reliability and control of finances. To the Sports Editors, Teela, Steph, and Lind- Thanks fore "filling the pages," arranging the schedules, and your unceasing de- ability. Thank you to all of the other senior staff members for your contributions: y, Katie, Cindy, Grace, Ross. To the underclassmen editors, Kaitlin, Amanda, s, Cynthia, D.J.: Thanks for your help on layouts. I wish you the best of luck next My advice for you is to follow directions and stay ahead of schedule; that way, have minimal errors and only be a few days late for deadlines . . . just kidding . . ve faith in you! To my Co-Editor: Sha: Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I ever forget our talks about college, friendship, and "quitting" yearbook. I could ave done this without you . . . thanks for your overtime work! Thanks also to Bill en, Bob Johnston, and Mr. Williams for putting up with late night phone calls and ing us everything! Finally, thanks to my family for understanding why we don't a useable downstairs table anymore. I promise I will clean it one of these days! I you Mom, Dad, and Jess. To the Class of 2002: In the words of Langston Hughes, d fast to dreams, for if dreams die, life is a broken winged bird that cannot fly." of luck to you all!
